

Centre Stage Performing Arts school

Licences and insurances Policy

Insurances

Through its active membership with the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance (ISTD), Centre Stage Performing Arts School takes advantage of a tailored insurance scheme available for teachers and dance schools. The facility is arranged by Arthur J.Gallagher Insurance Brokers Limited and underwritten by Axa Insurance UK plc.

CSPAS has a policy to cover but is not limited to;

- Public Liability
- Employers Liability
- Shows/displays

CSPAS renews its policy yearly through the named company above and insists that all freelance staff have an up to date insurance policies and they should be made available on request.

TheMusicLicence

CSPAS holds a music licence from PPL PRS now known as TheMusicLicence. This allows them to play music to their customers at regular classes or at live performances to the public.

Performance Licence

When CSPAS puts on a performance or display the relevant entertainment licence is obtained through Children in Employment and Entertainment with their local county council; www.norfolk.gov.uk Chaperones for such events are also applied for through this agency and supported by CSPAS for it volunteers and helpers.
